

The space in Gigi's attic was small but since she was a fairy and fairies were little, Gigi made her workspace function. She had a little trunk where she kept her sewing materials. Gigi also had a miniature dress maker's form that she believed came from a dollhouse.